

Exhibit B
To Registration Statement
Pursuant to the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended

INSTRUCTIONS: A registrant must furnish as an Exhibit B copies of each written agreement and the terms and conditions of each oral agreement with his foreign principal, including all modifications of such agreements, or, where no contract exists, a full statement of all the circumstances by reason of which the registrant is acting as an agent of a foreign principal. One original and two legible photocopies of this form shall be filed for each foreign principal named in the registration statement and must be signed by or on behalf of the registrant.

Privacy Act Statement. Every registration statement, short form registration statement, supplemental statement, exhibit, amendment, copy of informational materials or other document or information filed with the Attorney General under this Act is a public record open to public examination, inspection and copying during the posted business hours of the Registration Unit in Washington, DC. One copy of every such document, other than informational materials, is automatically provided to the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 6(b) of the Act, and copies of any and all documents are routinely made available to other agencies, departments and Congress pursuant to Section 6(c) of the Act. The Attorney General also transmits a semi-annual report to Congress on the Administration of the Act which lists the names of all agents registered under the Act and the foreign principals they represent. This report is available to the public.

Public Reporting Burden. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average .33 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden to Chief, Registration Unit, Criminal Division, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC 20530; and to the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Office of Management and Budget, Washington, DC 20503.

Footnote: Political activity as defined in Section 1(o) of the Act means any activity which the person engaging in believes will, or that the person intends to, in any way influence any agency or official of the Government of the United States or any section of the public within the United States with reference to formulating, adopting, or changing the domestic or foreign policies of the United States or with reference to the political or public interests, policies, or relations of a government of a foreign country or a foreign political party.

Parties to the contract are Miguel Ernesto Lacayo Arguello, representing the Ministry of Economy of El Salvador as "Contractor" (party offering the contract) or "MINEC" (Ministry) and Peter T. Madigan, representing the consulting firm Griffin, Johnson, Dover, and Stewart. The first paragraph lists their identification. They certify the following: The extension of contract is dated June 10, 2003. Terms used in the document are defined; a) Contract, b) Price of Contract, c) Services (detailed in "Terms of Referenda"), d) Consulting Hours, e) LCAP (a law governing procurement and contracts), f) TLC-FTA (Free Trade Agreement), g) Central America. The contract will be governed by the clauses it contains.

I. OBJECT OF EXTENSION OF CONTRACT: To continue supporting the Government of El Salvador through the MINEC to promote a Central America – U.S. FTA and generate recommendations for creating a positive image of the country. Will also recommend appropriate actions for the government to ensure an effective process.

II. FEES AND MANNER OF PAYMENT: $193,200.00 U.S. will be paid in 6 successive monthly payments of $32,200.00. Payments will be made on the 15th of the month following the month of invoice. The consulting firm will present the invoice on the last business days of the month with a detail of services performed and a document signed by the Ambassador of El Salvador stating satisfaction with the services. The MINEC expects to expend $7,500.00 U.S. to cover travel expenses incurred by the consultant for visits to cities for meetings with the MINEC's authorities and agreed to in advance by the parties. The number of consulting staff to carry out the visits will be agreed to in advance, and normally will be two people. The amount to be paid will cover tickets, food, and hotel costs for the personnel of the consulting firm. Proof of expenses must be submitted to the MINEC in order for the financial unit of the Ministry to pay within a reasonable time. The Ambassador will approve the expenses. Payments of fixed fees, costs, and expenses as detailed above, will be paid by depositing the money in a banking account to be indicated by the consulting firm in a note to the Ministry of the Economy.

III. TERM OF EXTENSION: The extension will be for six months, from July 1 to December 31, 2003.

IV. PERFORMANCE OF SERVICES: The consulting firm will always coordinate services through the Ambassador, Minister, Vice Minister for the Economy, the Director of Commercial Policy of the Ministry and any other person they designate. The consulting firm should be available to provide verbal and written consultation before and during the process of negotiation with the U.S.

V. EMBASSY OF EL SALVADOR IN WASHINGTON D.C.: The consulting firm will provide promptly any information, studies, or analysis required, and will attend meetings requested by the Ambassador on matters related to the political work of the Ambassador or to the process of commercial negotiation of the FTA between Central America and the U.S.

VI. CONFIDENTIALITY CLAUSE: All information provided by the MINEC and related to this contract will be considered confidential by the consulting firm, which agrees to i) protect the information, ii) use it only to fulfill its obligations, iii) reproduce it only as necessary for performance of its obligations. Any failure to comply will result in nullification of the contract and collection of the guaranty of compliance. The MINEC reserves the right to instruct the consulting firm on which information will be treated as non-confidential.

VII. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY CLAUSE: All intellectual property resulting from the services of the consulting firm will belong to the MINEC.

VIII. CONTRACT PERFORMANCE BOND: The consulting firm will provide a performance bond equal to ten percent of the contract amount. This may be paid by certified check or a letter of credit in the name of the Ministry of the Economy of El Salvador, issued by a bank in the consulting firm's country of origin. This bond will be returned upon completion of this contract and fulfillment of all obligations by the consulting firm.

IX. OBLIGATIONS OF THE CONTRACTOR: Payments will be made from the budget of MINEC.

X. OBLIGATIONS OF THE CONSULTING FIRM: Services will include a) coordinating the flow of information in the U.S., b) maintaining support, c) working with the U.S. and its economic partners to support the FTA, d) continually identifying possible members of the coalition and working with them to educate the public and private sectors on commercial negotiation with the U.S., e) promoting favorable opinion towards the FTA, f) actively promoting a positive image of El Salvador in the media, g) coordinating tasks for El Salvador and other countries of the region in the process of negotiation, h) creating a common strategy for the region that meets the interests of each and allows rapid consensus, i) providing periodic written reports to the Minister on all activities carried out within the framework of this contract.

XI. ASSIGNMENT OR TRANSFER: The consulting firm is strictly prohibited from transferring or assigning any rights or obligations of this contract. Failure to comply will void the contract and result in collection of the bond.

XII. NON-COMPLIANCE: In case of unjustified delays or non-compliance by the consulting firm, fines established by LACAP will apply.

XIII. TERMINATION: In addition to causes described in LACAP and other laws, the following will also void the contract: Any action or omission by the representatives or employees of the consulting firm that is contrary to the constitutional principles of El Salvador, causes them to lose credibility, or involves a conflict of interest.

XIV. CONTRACTUAL DOCUMENTS: The following are part of this contract: a) terms of reference, b) the consultant's proposal, c) Resolution of Modification and Extension, d) contract performance bond.

XV. INTERPRETATION OF THE CONTRACT: The consulting firm accepts interpretation according to the laws of the Republic and promises strict compliance.

XVI. UNILATERAL MODIFICATION: Both parties agree that if public interest makes it necessary to modify the contract, this may be done by the contractor by a resolution that becomes part of the contract. Any modification will be made within the parameters of good faith.

XVII. ACTS OF GOD OR FORCE MAJEURE: The consulting firm may request extension of the contract due to unforeseen circumstances. The extension will become part of the contract.

XVIII. SETTLEMENT OF CONFLICTS: Conflicts will be resolved according to LACAP.

XIX. BILATERAL TERMINATION: The parties may agree to dissolve the legal relationship and issue the appropriate document within eight working days of notification of the resolution.

XX. JURISDICTION AND APPLICABLE LAW: Both parties submit to the laws and courts of El Salvador. The consulting firm waives the right of appeal in cases of lien or other penalty.

XXI. NOTIFICATIONS: All notifications, requests, or approvals will be made in writing and sent to the addresses on the contract.

Signed in Washington on June 30, 2003.
